

The Annual Jane Williams Library Lecture

The Jane Williams Library - named in her honour in memory of her father, the late Rt Revd Geoffrey Paul, Bishop of Bradford from 1981 until his death in 1983 - was opened in April 2010 following its refurbishment and restocking and is now used as a resource for the Arts & Spirituality. Mrs Williams' lecture 'The Importance of Beauty in Troubled Times' was the first in this new programme of annual lectures.

This year's lecture is co-sponsored by The Friends of Bradford Cathedral.

NEW LIFE FOR OLD BUTTONS?

Traid Aid are collecting buttons, zips, bias binding, etc, for tailors and seamstresses in Africa who are striving to become self-sufficient - your surplus could become their bread and butter! Please sort through your drawers and leave any such accessories beside the boxes for spectacles and stamps near the sound desk ... before the end of July 2011 please.

MEDICINES

Unopened and well in-date tablets, creams and vitamins can now be sent to benefit people in Africa - where healthcare is minimal - via Intercare (www.intercare.org.uk/donate-medicines) or see Jane Tarver who can take them to her local collecting point. Look out for the Intercare facility at your local chemist or doctors.

HELP STAMP OUT LEPROSY ... and other ways to help

The Leprosy Mission's new slogan is aimed to encourage people to trim commemorative and foreign stamps from letters and recycle them to raise funds - to help eradicate leprosy and care for sufferers. The Leprosy Mission raised £75,382 in 2010 through its philatelic wing. We have a little box (decorated with stamps) on the shelves at the back of the South Aisle as our receptacle. Please save only the less common stamps and trim them with about 5mm around, or soak them off, or rescue collections which the owner no longer wants! (Please note we have now LOST our outlet for everyday 1st and 2nd class stamps). Also, ALL POSTCARDS, used or unused, are sold in aid of our link diocese in Khartoum to buy basics for their work in the church and community. Over £7000 was sent last year. Please leave postcards in the letter rack or Cathedral Office.

Thank you for donating 89 pairs of glasses during 2010!! The box for your old SPECTACLES is alongside the stamps box. Glasses, with or without cases, are needed in the Third World countries where little healthcare provision is available.

CATHEDRAL CHOIR

There is more to being a member of a choir than singing. The social and educational benefits of choral singing is now widely documented. Did you know that when you sing every part of your brain is stimulated!

The boys and girls of the Choir are from all areas of Bradford and beyond, and are drawn from over twenty local schools. Participation in services and concert performances is a culmination of many hours of dedicated preparation and hard work by the Choir who, along with the adult members, provide an enriching musical contribution to worship every week at the Cathedral. The Choir also take choral music out to churches and venues in the Bradford area and beyond.

Choir practice take place (during term time) on different days during the week for the various sections of the Choir. The main time for new members is Tuesday evening at 4pm (boys) and Saturday morning at 9.30am (girls). Full Choir practice is at 6.45pm on Thursday evenings.

New members of the Choir are always welcome and enquiries, from individuals or schools, should be made to the Cathedral Office or Mr Andrew Teague to arrange an initial visit.
