

All recitals start at 1.05pm preceded by a light buffet lunch

8th September

David Griffiths

Birmingham

Buxtehude, Sweelinck, Peeters, plus Elgar's Nimrod

15th September

Neil Taylor

Sheffield Cathedral

Franck Pièce Héroïque and Choral No III in A minor

22nd September

Andrew Fletcher

Birmingham

Ireland, Bach, Smart, plus Whitlock's Plymouth Suite

29th September

Paul Fisher

Settle

Bach, Widor, Peter Maxwell Davies

6th October

Jonathan Lilley

Ely Cathedral

Dubois, Widor, and Ravel's Boléro

13th October

Peter Wright

Southwark Cathedral

Allegro maestoso Elgar and Variations sur un Noël Dupré

20th October

Andrew Teague

Bradford Cathedral

Transcriptions & Cinema Organ Favourites

27th October

Ian Hare

Cumbria

Delius The Walk to the Paradise Garden

3rd November

Christopher Newton

St Bartholomew's Armley

Bolcom's Gospel Prelude: Amazing Grace and Best's Concert Fantasia on Men of Harlech

10th November

Philip Moore

formerly York Minster

Bach, Buxtehude, and Schumann's Sketches for Piano Pedal

17th November

Stephen Disley

Southwark Cathedral

24th November

Andrew Teague

Bradford Cathedral

Music from the German organ tradition

We close the season with a special evening recital - rescheduled from last year when it was unfortunately cancelled due to heavy snow.

Friday 3rd December at 7.00pm

An Artspace Event

Messiaen's

La Nativité du Seigneur

The Cathedral's Assistant Organist Paul Bowen plays this wonderful composition of nine 'musical mediations' which explore the underlying themes of the birth of Christ. Before the recital artist Sophie Hacker, from Winchester Cathedral, discusses the inspiration and processes behind her contemporary work Icons of the Incarnation which explore the themes of incarnation and eternity conceived in response to Messiaen's work.

Tickets £10 inc refreshments

Annual St Ceciliaide Concert

to include

William Walton's Anthem for the Feast of a Saint

The Twelve

and

One of Bach's most rewarding works

Jesu Meine Freude

(BWV 227)

Friday 19th November at 7.30pm

Tickets £8 / £5 concessions

The Spring Series begins on Wednesday 9th February - please look out for further details.

For future local and national concerts please go to www.organrecitals.com