

Just some of the organ's 3000 pipes

Your continued support for our lunchtime series is greatly appreciated and we hope you enjoy this season's mix of guest recitalists.

There are a number of new faces in this series, and they are assured of the warmest of Bradford welcomes.

We are indebted to so many people who give of their time to make the series possible. Thank you all - you know who you are.

We are particularly delighted to welcome Alex Woodrow, the Cathedral's new Director of Music. He will be giving the closing recital of this season.

Thank you

*Paul Bowen
Cathedral Organist*
